

I don't want a few massive corporations controlling everything the American public sees and hears. This will lead to a society wracked with unfairness and injustice. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.